

Skip Hire Guide

In general, most types of waste can be placed in a skip. The following materials should not be put into any skip or container:

Food Waste, Paints, Paint Cans, Thinners, Asbestos, Clinical Waste, Animal Carcasses, Batteries, Chemical Waste, Creosote, Gas Bottles, Fire Extinguishers, Fluorescent Lights and Bulbs, Waste Oils, Sludges, Food Waste, Contaminated oil or any material generally considered to be harmful or hazardous.

This is not an exhaustive list so if you are unsure about the suitability of any waste please contact us at the office.

Note: Inclusion of these prohibited materials may result in your waste being rejected upon receipt of the waste at our facility and may incur additional haulage, disposal of waste and laboratory costs.

General Terms and Conditions of Skip Hire

Any reference to "the Company" means Dungarvan Recycling Company Limited or its Agents. All contracts made by the Company shall be deemed to incorporate these terms and conditions; no variation or addition to them shall form part of any contract unless specifically accepted by the Company in writing. The price of the goods or service provided shall be the company's price ruling at the date of dispatch. If any sum owed by the buyer to the Company should be overdue for payment, the Company may withhold any goods or services due for dispatch to the buyer under any contract without prejudice to the Company's rights and the buyer's liability under such contract.

Hire period is for a maximum of 3 days (unless otherwise agreed) and notwithstanding the foregoing, it may take up to a maximum of 7 working days for the Company to collect the skip. Should this be the case, there are no additional costs to the Hirer, however, the contractual agreement and its conditions remains in place until such time the skip has been removed. Hiring period may also be terminated on the instructions of a member of An Garda Síochána or any other authorised official. The company will not reimburse the Hirer/Client for any losses incurred in such an event.

Unless agreed in writing beforehand, the hire price will be payable upon order or delivery of the hired goods to the customer. The Company reserves the right not to collect hired goods (including in particular, waste disposal skips and containers) until full payment has been received by the Company of the hire price. In the case of delay in collection caused by failure to make full payment, further hire charges will be levied at the Company's normal daily hire rate for such goods.

Should the Company be delayed in or prevented from making delivery of the goods or services due to war, strikes, lock-outs, fire, floods, explosion, labour disturbances, trade disputes or shortages in raw materials or due to any other cause whatsoever beyond the control of the Company, the Company shall be at liberty to cancel or suspend the order without incurring any liability for any loss or damage arising therefrom.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages, discrepancy or shortage in the goods sold or hired unless the buyer notifies both the company and the carrier within 48 hours of the time of delivery of the goods.

In the case of skip hire the Company shall so far as practicable notify the approximate time of delivery of the skip. The customer will, in all cases, indicate either in advance or at the time of delivery, the location on site where delivery is desired, and in default of such indication, the Company shall be entitled to deposit the skip wherever the Company shall deem most suitable and convenient, but without any liability or responsibility to the customer or any third party arising out of the Company's choice of such location of delivery.

The Company at all times reserves the right to refuse delivery of the goods at any particular location where in the opinion of the Company, a danger or risk will be created thereby, being in particular, a risk of danger or injury to third parties or where it would be contrary to any law or bye-law in force.

The hirer as appropriate will be liable to take all reasonable care of equipment including inter alia, bins, compactors, balers and all other equipment in hirer's custody, and shall be liable for any damage howsoever caused to the equipment arising from the loss, neglect or default caused by the hirer or their agents.

The Company shall be under no liability for any loss or damage however arising, resulting from the use of the goods by the buyer, and the buyer shall indemnify the Company in respect of any claim by a Third Party for loss or damage resulting as aforesaid.

The customer will use waste disposal skips and containers only for the disposal of suitable materials, and will not seek to deposit hazardous or toxic waste in the said skips and/or containers. Full details of suitable material are described on the front of this docket.

The customer shall not overload any such skip or container and the Company reserves the right to refuse to remove or collect such skip or container in the event of overloading or for other good reason and the decision of the Company shall be final in this regard.

The hirer shall be responsible for all expenses involved arising from any breakdown and all loss or damage by the Company due to the hirer's negligence, misdirection or misuse of the plant, whether by the hirer or his servants and for the payment of hire at the appropriate idle time rate during the period the plant is necessarily idle due to such breakdown, and the hirer shall be responsible for any liability arising out of the positioning and/or use of the said goods during the period of hire.

The Company shall not be liable for any damage to any surfaces, manholes, walls or property, caused by the Company vehicles or equipment while on the buyer's premises and the buyer will indemnify the Company in respect of any claim by a Third Party for loss or damage resulting as aforesaid
